Hotel, Only Breakfast, Welcome Drink, Inner Line Permit, Airport Transfers, Intercity Transfers, Activity, Sightseeing, Guided Tours

Day : 1 KATHMANDU

Arrival at Tribhuvan International Airport, meet and greet by our local representative and transfer to your hotel in Kathmandu. Once you are settled in, it's time for your Nepalese adventure to begin in earnest. In the afternoon, enjoy an informative and relaxing walking tour from Thamel to Durbar Square, the historic heart of the city. This is a great way to settle into the country and get a feel of the atmosphere. Admire famous attractions such as Kumari Bahal, a building richly decorated with beautiful woodcarvings, which is home to the Royal Kumari, a child who is a 'living goddess' and a manifestation of the deity, Durga. Nearby is Hanuman Dhoka, the former royal palace, whose Nassa Chowk courtyard was the coronation site of the Shah kings and contains some of the finest wood carvings you'll see anywhere. The 14th century Jagannath Mandir is the oldest temple in the area, its steps carved with inscriptions in various languages. Close by, Taleju Mandir is one of the largest and finest temples in the Kathmandu valley and is dedicated to the patron deity of the former royal family, the wrathful Taleju Bhawani. In the evening, visit Utsav, a local restaurant, where you can savour dal bhat, the rice and lentil dish that is Nepal's national dish, and also enjoy a programme of live cultural performances.

Day : 2 KATHMANDU – PATAN – KATHMANDU (10km – 30 mins)

Breakfast at the hotel is followed by a spiritual start to the day with a morning sightseeing tour taking in the Hindu Pashupatinath temple and the Boudhanath, the largest Buddhist stupa in Nepal. Located on the banks of the holy River Bagmati, the vast Pashupatinath is dedicated to the Lord Shiva and is one of the most sacred Hindu shrines in the world. Thousands of pilgrims flock to this temple every year during Shivaratri, the birthday of the Lord Shiva. There are many eye-catching elements such as the large, gilded triple-roofed temple but there is so much going on around you, with the throngs of faithful and pilgrims, that the din of hustle and bustle becomes an attraction in itself. Entrance to the main temple is limited to Hindus only. Behold the beautiful Buddhist Boudhanath stupa, which traces its origins to King Mani Dev in the fifth century. This UNESCO World Heritage Site is one of the world's leading centres of Tibetan Buddhism and is bedecked with traditional prayer rolls and Tibetan prayer flags. Lunch is in a restaurant in the Boudhanath.

The afternoon is dedicated to exploring Durbar Square in Patan, a historic city just a few kilometres south of central Kathmandu. This traditionally Buddhist bastion – they make up about one-sixth of Nepal’s population – is a veritable Oriental treasure trove where Buddhism and Hinduism meet, creating a fascinating architectural landscape in the Newar style. Durbar Square is considered to be one of the finest urban streetscapes in the world, the centrepiece being the palace of the Malla monarchs, who ruled Nepal for six centuries. Wander this stunning complex, which boasts a series of beautiful courtyards with ornamented windows and colonnaded arcades, temples and shrines, all noted for their exquisite carvings. Contemplate the square’s Krishna temple and Rudra Varna Mahavihar Buddhist monastery before returning to the hotel in Kathmandu for dinner.

Day : 3 KATHMANDU – CHITWAN (170km – 5-6 hrs)

Depart Kathmandu after breakfast at the hotel, transferring to Chitwan, passing through beautiful villages and breathtaking landscapes of verdant valleys framed by majestic mountains and by the wild white waters of the River Trishuli. Arrive at Royal Safari Resort, located on the edge of the Chitwan National Park and by the banks of the East Rapti River. Enjoy a refreshment while the check-in process takes place and then a briefing before lunch in the resort. In the afternoon (time permitting) a naturalist outlines the programme over the coming days, which features a jungle walk, an elephant safari and canoeing. Then it’s time to explore the jungle before returning to the resort for dinner.

Day : 4 CHITWAN

Discover the wild side of Nepal with an elephant safari in Chitwan National Park. Explore the jungle on the back of an elephant, enjoying a truly special natural environment in unison with one of these gentle giants. Immerse yourself in a lost world of towering trees and twisting vines, of pre-historic rhinos and lumbering elephants, of crocodiles, pythons and deer, of brilliantly coloured birds and, with a bit of luck, the majestic royal Bengal tiger. Return to the resort for lunch with more jungle activities in the afternoon.

Day : 6 POKHARA

Start the day on a high in every sense of the word by witnessing sunrise from Sarangkot, a 1,600-metre-high mountain in the northern shore of Lake Phewa. (This segment is subject to weather conditions.) In the flickering light of early morning, watch as the eight snowcapped peaks of the Annapurna range are bathed in a kaleidoscope of golden-hued shades – a truly awe-inspiring natural phenomenon. Tea/coffee is served at a local café in Sarangkot. Pass through the beautiful Schima-Catonopsis forest on the way to the lookout, from where you can also enjoy views over the lake and its tributary rivers. Return through the forest – which can now be appreciated in the splendours of the natural light bursting through the branches – for breakfast at the hotel. Once replenished, enjoy a morning sightseeing tour of Pokhara city and a boat ride on Lake Phewa to the Taal Barahi temple, which is dedicated to the Hindu deity Durga and occupies a tiny tree covered islet about 200 metres from the waterfront. See the city's top attractions, such as the Bindhyavasini temple, which is dedicated to the Goddess Bhagavathi. Return to the hotel for lunch. Spend the afternoon learning all about the summits in whose shadow Pokhara lies at the International Mountain Museum. Here you can find collections dedicated to the flora and fauna of the Himalayas as well as exhibits documenting mountain cultures and their ways of life, the local environment and mountaineering history. The museum also has a restaurant, landscaped gardens and a climbing wall. Cap off the visit at the viewing platform from where you can contemplate the three 8,000-metre-plus peaks of the Annapurna range.

Day : 7 POKHARA – KATHMANDU (210km – 6 hrs)

Take to the road after breakfast at the hotel for the scenic drive to Kathmandu, passing through the bucolic Nepalese countryside and parallel to stretches of the white waters of the rivers Trishuli and Marshyangdi. Break en route in Kurintar for lunch at Riverside Spring Resort, which is located on a bend in the River Trishuli. While resting at the resort, you can avail of an optional visit to the Manakamana Temple by cable car. The 2.7km-long journey climbs just over 1,000 metres and takes about 10 minutes from the bottom station to the top. The pagoda-style temple dates from the 17th century and, from the north face, you can take in the spellbinding views the Manaslu, Himachali and Annapurna ranges. Continue to Kathmandu and upon arrival transfer to your accommodation for check in at the hotel.
