

Kerala 6D

Duration: 6 Days / 5 Nights

Itinerary:

Day 1 ARRIVAL KOCHI

Fort Kochi- SIGHTSEEING

Fort Kochi beach is located on the western coast of India and is often known as the 'Queen of the Arabian Sea'. It's a serene beach that offers a scenic view and natural beauty to its visitors. With its pristine water and tranquil ambience, it is extremely admired by tourists and local people as well.

Marine Drive- SIGHTSEEING

Chinese Fishing Nets- SIGHTSEEING

The Chinese Fishing Nets at Fort Kochi is a must visit attraction in Kerala. These are fixed land installations, used for fishing in a unique method. These nets are fixed on bamboo and teak poles holding it horizontally by huge mechanisms so as to pull them down into the sea.

St. Francis Church- SIGHTSEEING

The St. Francis Church, well-known for its beautiful structural design and ambience, has an important place in history. It is here that the famous explorer, Vasco-da-Gama, was originally buried. His remains would be taken back 14 years later but to this day, the exact spot is clearly marked. The place is known for its deep Dutch and Portuguese influences and is an architectural marvel in itself. The credit for its construction goes to the Portuguese Franciscan Friars in 1503. Originally made with mud and wood, it went under a lot of work with the Portuguese, Dutch and the British leaving their imprints on the place. Eventually it would come under the control of the Church of South India in 1949. Visitors are especially charmed by its gabled timber framed roof. The interiors have two stepped pinnacles crowning the top of the chancel roof. The entire experience is the epitome of old school charm from the pulpit made of wood decorated to the confessional to the baptism platform. History has left its imprint here, which is evident to this day.

Day 2 KOCHI – MUNNAR (210km – 5.5 hrs)

Day 3 MUNNAR

Tea Museum- SIGHTSEEING

A Tea Museum has been established by Tata Tea in 2005 which has photographs and machineries, which chronicle the history and growth of tea in the area. The museum set up at the Nallathanni Estate of Tata Tea depicts the transition from the rudimentary tea roller to the modern fully-automated tea factory. One can also see a sundial, the 'Pelton Wheel', tea roller, and a rail engine wheel. A demonstration room for tea tasting is also an attraction where one would come across different varieties of tea.

Munnar City Tour- SIGHTSEEING

Munnar is a delightful hill station and one of the most popular hill stations in God's Own Country, Kerala. It is situated in Western Ghats at an altitude of 6000 ft and is located in Idukki district of Kerala. This picturesque hill station beckons nature lovers from far and near. Large tea plantations, forests, hill ranges, valleys and wildlife makes anyone fall in love with this place. Some of the major attractions of this place are Mattupetty Dam, Echo Point, Attukal Waterfalls, Rajamalai Wildlife Sanctuary, etc.

CSI Christ Church- SIGHTSEEING

This church is located on a small hillock, right next to the BellMount Resort. The church is more than a 100 years old and is a reminder of the British Legacy of Tea Planters in Old Munnar and the missionaries who arrived here.

Tea Gardens- SIGHTSEEING

Tea Garden has become one of the reasons behind the international fame of the hill station of Munnar and regarded as a prominent hub of tea trade in the country. This hill station is synonymous with rolling hills that are carpeted with verdant plantations of tea. This place is recognised for having some of the best and most beautiful tea gardens across the globe. In present times, the hill station has more than 50 tea gardens.

Echo Point- SIGHTSEEING

Echo Point is a very beautiful place in Munnar, which got its name from natural echo phenomenon situated at a scenic lake bank. When one screams at here, he will be hearing his voice returning to him. Placed at an altitude about 600 ft, Echo Point is located 15 km away from Munnar, on the way to Top Station. It has a greenish look as it is covered with abundant green sceneries. It is an adventurous destination, which will be a perfect choice for those who love to have a nature walk or trekking.

Day 4 MUNNAR – KUMARAKOM (150km – 4.5 hrs)

Lake Periyar- SIGHTSEEING

Periyar is the longest river and the river with the largest discharge potential in the Indian state of Kerala. It is one of the few perennial rivers in the region and provides drinking water for several major towns. The Periyar is of utmost significance to the economy of Kerala. It generates a significant proportion of Kerala's electrical power via the Idukki Dam and flows along a region of industrial and commercial activity. The river also provides water for irrigation and domestic use throughout its course besides supporting a rich fishery. Due to these reasons, the river has been named the "Lifeline of Kerala".

Aruvikkuzhi Waterfalls- SIGHTSEEING

Aruvikkuzhi waterfalls is a major tourist destination, visited by locals and tourists alike. A picnic spot that is fun for the entire family, this waterfall is located almost 18 km away from the town of Kottayam. Falling from a height of more than a 100 mts, the waterfalls make for a very pretty sight indeed. Ideal for those looking to get away from the hustle bustle of the normal city life.

Coconut Groves- SIGHTSEEING

Coconut Lagoon, Kumarakom, Kerala, India is a CGH Earth Group Enterprise now synonymous with Kumarakom and backwater treasures of Kerala in India. It is located hidden among the palm trees on the eastern shore of Lake Vembanad, at Kumarakom, at the mouth of the Kavanar River. It is set on an abandoned coconut plantation in the very heart of these fascinating backwaters, and has been designed to give visitors an authentic insight into Kuttanad life.

Spice Plantation Tour- SIGHTSEEING
